PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

Global equities retreated sharply at the end of February, driven by the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and its potential impact on economic growth. The market assumption the outbreak would be confined to mainland China was proven wrong as cases surged in Europe. Safe haven assets have been in high demand, with the yield on the 10 year US Treasury falling rapidly to 1.1% at month end. Against this backdrop the Global Balanced Portfolio returned -4.1%.

In line with our expectations given sector and style moves, managers with an emphasis on sustainable growth had a good relative month. The Stonehage Fleming Global Best Ideas Fund returned -3.9%, outperforming by 1%. Findlay Park returned -3.1%, outperforming by 2%. The combination of the cash holding in mid-teens and good stock selection contributed to lower downside. It was a difficult month for those invested in more cyclical stocks, including Lyrical in the US who returned -7.3%, underperforming by 2.2%.

ACTIVE MANAGER IN FOCUS

The Evenlode Global Income Fund aims to outperform developed world equities with an emphasis on quality businesses achieving dividend growth. The portfolio is relatively concentrated, consisting of 25-40 stocks primarily in the US and Europe. The research process focuses on companies with high and growing cash flows with resilient economic moats and strong pricing power. This approach offers the portfolio exposure to companies with non-cyclical growth characteristics that are expected to deliver strong long term returns, typically with less volatility than the broad market. Top holdings are currently Unilever, Henkel and Essilor.
